Gallery Information

Prime Art Lounge is an art space focused on contemporary international art based in Zurich, Switzerland. Founded by three brothers, Kieffer, who believe there is a crucial need for wider representation of contemporary art from the former Soviet republics specifically and international contemporary artists in general.

Alexander Kieffer, Director, has worked and lived between Zurich, London, Belarus and Moscow. With Kieffer's unique access and relationship with the artists, the exhibitions are thoroughly researched and prepared.

Prime Art Lounge aims to host six exhibitions a year that showcase international art with focus on art from Russia and the former Soviet republics.

Offering artworks of high quality, the gallery has a reputation for excellence, integrity and discretion that it continues to earn by providing a high level of service to understandably demanding clients.
